

OregonCityNews

Business Briefs, Dec. 10

The Clackamas Review, Dec 10, 2008

Former CCC student opens senior business

An area couple with a background in business has taken over a Home Instead Senior Care® office serving the area.

Home Instead Senior Care is an independently owned and operated company that is part of an international franchise chain. It specializes in non-medical home care services for aging adults. Preston and Aimee Roth are the new owners.

Aimee Roth attended Clackamas Community College and has worked for a temporary staffing agency, where she specialized in recruiting, screening, interviewing, testing and making the “perfect match” by placing the right employees with the right employers - all vital parts of a successful Home Instead Senior Care franchise.

Preston Roth graduated from Southern Oregon University. He worked at Nike Inc. for 11 years.

Home Instead Senior Care is located at 4415 NE Sandy Blvd. #208, Portland Oregon 97213. For more information about company services call the office at (503) 335-0626 or visit the company’s website at <http://www.homeinstead.com>.

Copyright 2008 Pamplin Media Group, 6605 S.E. Lake Road, Portland, OR 97222 • 503-226-6397