CCC, library host food, book discussion

The Oregon City Public Library will host "Potluck, Panel and Participation -- An Evening of Talk About Food and Identity" on Wednesday at the Carnegie Center, 606 John Adams St.

The theme for the third annual event, co-hosted by the Clackamas Community College English department, is "Food for Thought," and the selected novel is "Crescent" by Diana Abu-Jaber.

The event will begin with a potluck at 6 p.m., followed by a discussion until 8 p.m. The panel, led by Clackamas Community College English teacher Trista Cornelius, includes journalist Kim Carlson, creator of culinate.com; Anne-Louise Sterry, an award-winning singer and storyteller; and Dr. Diane Vines, a University of Portland nursing instructor. For details, call the library at 503-657-8269.
