

Diverse Teacher Scholars Program

In collaboration with Oregon school districts and community colleges, Western Oregon University is seeking smart, energetic students who are ethnically diverse or who are heritage speakers of a language other than English eager to join the next generation of Oregon teachers through the Diverse Teacher Scholars Program!

The DiverseTeacher Scholars Program aligns resources and opportunities for students to attend Western Oregon University and provides a scholarship of $3,000 per year, renewable annually. Students in the program receive academic support, individualized advising and professional development opportunities. Upon completion, students may receive preferred hiring in their school districts.

The Diverse Teacher Scholars program provides generous tuition assistance. Recipients must maintain a strong GPA and progress toward graduation to remain eligible for participation.

YOU'RE ELIGIBLE IF YOU ARE:

- A high school student (on track to graduate from an Oregon high school), or a transfer student from an Oregon community college
- Ethnically diverse or a heritage speaker of a language other than English
- Admitted to Western Oregon University

YOU'RE ELIGIBLE IF YOU ARE:

- An incoming graduate student entering either the Master of Arts in Teaching (Secondary Education) or the M.S. in Education (Special Education K-12) program
- Ethnically diverse or a heritage speaker of a language other than English
- Admitted to Western Oregon University
