

North

 Yellow represents public areas which can be used for expressive conduct as long as they are not reserved for another event at that time*

1 Wilsonville Lawn

*To see if a public space is currently reserved, please visit the Event & Facility Support Office in Room W151 or contact Events and Conference Services | 503-594-0970 | events@clackamas.edu.

For inquiry regarding other spaces on the Wilsonville campus, please contact Events and Conference Services at the contact information above.

EXPRESSIVE CONDUCT AREA MAP Wilsonville Campus

Expressive Conduct Area Map Wilsonville Campus

Wilsonville Campus is located at 29353 SW Town Center Loop E, Wilsonville, OR 97070.

This map provides a detailed bird's-eye view of the Wilsonville Campus Expressive Conduct Areas highlighted in yellow.

These public areas which can be used for expressive conduct as long as they are not reserved for another event at that time.

A navigational compass is on top left corner of the map clearly showing the direction North.

The Wilsonville campus building is in the upper-middle area of the map. The map's right boundary is defined by Town Center Loop Road, which runs the full length of that side in a north-south direction.

The document's primary focus is the single designated zone, the Wilsonville Lawn, which you can find south of the main Wilsonville building and immediately east of the large parking lot.

To see if a public space is currently reserved, please visit the Event & Facility Support Office in Room W151 or contact Events and Conference Services at 503-594-0970 or email them at events@clackamas.edu. For inquiry regarding other spaces on the Wilsonville campus, please contact Events and Conference Services at the contact information above.

A white Clackamas Community College logo is located on the bottom right hand side of the document.